Bhargavi's key focus areas include corporate law, compliance advisory, board governance, and guiding foreign investors in the areas of manufacturing, technology, and emerging areas of regulation. She is sought after by startups and mature companies to navigate complex company law matters and cross border foreign exchange law compliance. Her practice encompasses mergers and amalgamations, joint ventures, private equity, venture capital, and general commercial matters. Her core strengths include navigating the intricacies of cross border IP licensing, technology sharing strategic arrangements, and supply chain advisory for the semiconductor industry. She also advises private wealth clients and business families in inter-generational settlements, succession and estate planning.
